

MY DAUGHTER WAS CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Baltimore, Md.—"I send you here, with the picture of my fifteen year old daughter Alice, who was restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was pale, with dark circles under her eyes, weak and irritable. Two different doctors treated her and called it Green Sickness, but she grew worse all the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking three bottles she has regained her health, thanks to your medicine. I can recommend it for all female troubles."—Mrs. I. A. COCHRAN, 1109 Rutland Street, Baltimore, Md.

Hundreds of such letters from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

A Jolt For Whistler.
When Whistler, the famous artist, dropped into an English country inn the landlord became very much interested in him. He felt that he had "a somebody" in his house. Whistler noted his host's concerned interest. "And who do you suppose I am?" he asked at length.
"Well, I can't exactly say, sir," was the reply, "but I should fancy you was from the music 'alls!"

Too Eager.
Sir Henry Irving once had an amusing experience in Glasgow. For the part of the young prince in "Charles" a little Scotch girl had been engaged. She had been carefully coached, and all went well until she appeared in the poignant scene where Mr. Irving as Charles has an amazing leave taking with his wife and children and goes out to execution. "Prouise me,"

SHE HAD BEEN CAREFULLY COACHED.

Charles says to the little prince, "that you will take care of your mother. And swear that you will never let them make you king while your brother Charles is alive," to which the child is supposed to reply, "I'll be torn to pieces first."

On this dreadful night, however, Mr. Irving only got as far as "promise me that you will take care of your mother" when out piped shrilly the annihilating reply, "I'll be torn to pieces first."

Golf In Scotland.
It is uncertain when golf, which originated in Scotland, was first practiced in that country, but the game was played by all classes there to a considerable extent in 1425.

THAT'S not very rhythmic poetry, but we are not poets, we are jewelers and have built up a substantial patronage by endeavoring to give value for value received. Exorbitant prices are out of our line. We do not care for transient trade. We want our customers to come again. We want them to continue to patronize us. In order to do this we have got to satisfy them. This is worth more to us than a mere transitory profit.

You will find very attractive jewelry here suitable as gifts for the bride or groom, for the bridesmaids or best man at prices commensurate with high class workmanship. Novel and chaste designs in silver and cut glass. In watches and clocks we carry the standard makes, which are sold with our guarantee.

Speaking of domestic pets James Dinwiddie's young lilliputian cat is certainly the cynosure of all eyes. At home the little quadruped will unceremoniously walk into the house and eat with the family from the table and drink from the water-pail. If thirty. This pet equine is allowed a good deal of latitude and acknowledges its appreciation by responding with a delightful musical whiney. Wherever James, or other members of the family drives the mother the cat, easily trots along. Many Bennington people look at the little pony with great admiration.

Kidney Trouble Overcome By the Great Treatment

I have been a sufferer for years with kidney and bladder trouble and took almost everything a drug store contained, without obtaining any benefit.
I suffered so that I became utterly discouraged, as I could not sleep, was always dizzy and had a headache all the time. I saw one of your advertisements and as a last resort, decided to try your Swamp-Root. I am now taking the third bottle and feel like a new woman, sleep well, and have no pains whatever.
I strongly advise all sufferers to take the only real cure for kidney and bladder trouble. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root was a God-send to me.
You may publish this letter if you wish so that it may be the means of bringing some poor sufferers back to health.

Mrs. Mary O'Donnell, Lander, Wyo.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this July 14th 1909.

Fuller Mr. McKearin and Mr. Sherwood of Hoosick Falls were beaten after three hard fought sets.
